I wanted to take this opportunity to thank the five-member team of Eco Dudes, for helping to co-chair our Earth Day seminar planned at Pfizer Animal Health in Charles City, Iowa on Thursday, April 22, 2010.

We are excited about the information you will provide to our 450 employees about ways in which we can conserve energy and help our planet. After reviewing the information on your website, <http://ecodudes.yolasite.com/>, I am very impressed at the amount of research you have completed and the amount of people you have helped to educate in regards to the environment.

Again, thank you for working together with Pfizer Animal Health and I look forward to meeting you all on April 22, 2010.

Sincerely,
